

ORLEANS COUNTY MONITOR.

Barton, Vt., May 28, 1894.

PROBATE COURTS.

Probate Courts will be held at the Probate Office in Newport each Monday. At the office of F. W. Baldwin at Barton on the second Friday of each month, and at the office of O. S. Annis at North Troy in the forenoon of the first Friday of each month, and at the office of B. F. D. Carpenter at Barton Landing in the forenoon of the third Friday of each month. Parties having business with Court at North Troy, Barton or Barton Landing concerning pending estates will please inform the Court in advance that he may take the necessary papers with him.

F. E. ALFRED, Judge of Probate.

LOCAL ADVERTISING.

Advertisements and notices, as prome-nades, shows and other entertainments will be published under this head for two cents a word for first insertion, one cent a word thereafter. We shall run no advertisements among local items. Cash must accompany the order. No charge will be made of LESS THAN FORTY CENTS.

Just received another lot of those China silks for dresses and waists.
Warranted all silk; 45 cents per yd.
O. D. Owen.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.—From the premises of J. P. Wheelock, Coventry, on Sunday night, May 20, a Scotch shepherd dog, color, sable; very bushy tail and answers to the name, "Ned." Any one giving information concerning the dog to Mr. Wheelock will be suitably rewarded.

Farmers will do well to examine the new Walter A. Wood, Tubular, Steel Mowing Machine before purchasing.
The new device for lifting the Cutter Bar with the foot, far surpasses any improvement of the kind attached to a mower. One of these machines, a six-foot cut, will be on exhibition near the Peerless Factory and the Barron & Hamlet store, next Saturday, June 2. We should be happy to have every farmer who intends to buy a new machine this season come out and see the late improvement in mowers—no other machine has this device. Twenty-four Walter A. Wood Tubular, Steel Mowers were sold by me in the town of Barton in 1893, every one giving the best of satisfaction. O. V. Joslyn, agent.

The place to buy shoes is at Geo. H.
Davis's store. He gives away every 19th pair.

N. M. Scott will make out application papers for sugar bounty license for next season. Call at office any day.

E. W. Merrill will be at Brown-ton Center, Thursday; Irasburgh, Friday and at Barton Landing Hotel, Saturday of this week, to make out bounty papers for the sugar makers.

TEETH EXTRACTED.—Dr. Stevens, dentist from Bradford, the leading tooth extractor of Vermont, who has such universal success extracting teeth without pain by the use of the Dental Electric Vibrator, will challenge an equal showing by anything else used for this purpose. It is a clean sweep; Everybody, sick or well, with heart disease or lung trouble, can have teeth extracted without the least danger. No bad effects or sore mouths result from the use of the Vibrator. Now is the time to have your teeth extracted. The doctor will be at the Crystal Lake House, Barton, again, Wednesday, June 6; at Memphremagog House, Newport, June 5. Give him a call; he will please you.

Those interested in horses should read the Speedwell Farms stallion ad. in this paper. Great effort has been made by the owner to place the very best stock horses which he could procure on the Farms. Those who attend the Parade at Lyndonville, June 6, will see some of them.

Smoked hams at reduced price at O.
D. Owen's.

J. W. Howard will have tomato plants for sale at H. C. Pierce's, and at his place in Barton in season for setting; and at R. S. Howard's, Irasburgh.

The best and brightest of all the Frohman comedies, "Jane" comes to Lane's Opera House Friday evening June 1st. The engagement of this comedy in San Francisco was a great success. It was one of the most successful of the season, and it made an impression which is not easily forgotten. It introduced an exceptionally clever company of players, specially selected by manager Gustave Frohman to play "Jane", and it is said that the performance is the best yet given. It will be recalled that "Jane" is an exceedingly funny comedy. The story briefly told is as follows: A reckless young man has been getting money from his guardian on the statement that he has an extravagant wife. He has really no wife at all, and when the guardian suddenly appears on a visit it is necessary to provide something that will at least look like a wife. The young man provides himself with an alleged helpmate, and his butler obligingly provides him with another.

Then a child is needed and found.
Another is needed and not found, but is accounted for. The mother of the first child comes and demands it, and the butler who is the real husband of the master's pretended wife, tires of the game and exposes the whole trick.
The butler and maid servant are reunited, the mother recovers the child and a pretty girl comes forward, ready to be married to the hero, while the guardian forgives everybody and pays all the debts.

Barton.

Charlie Currier is at work in Barton National Bank.

J. C. Page will build a good house if he can find a lot that suits him.

Mr. Jenkins has moved into the A.
M. McDougall upper tenement rooms.

Lula Lewis, daughter of Rev. F. W.
Lewis, is having a run of pneumonia.

Miss Julia Johnson and mother arrived home from Florida last Saturday in good health.

John Batchelder has bought the Mrs. C. E. Bickford buildings on Porter street.

The Congregational Ladies' Society is invited to meet with Mrs. Sarah E.
Case on Thursday, May 31.

Harry Gordon spent some days in town last week. He reports his father's health somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Mossman and Mr. and Mrs. John Wells spent last week in Westmore. They report fishing good.

Billy Berwick and Wayland Whitecher caught a longe weighing nearly ten pounds last Tuesday, while fishing on Crystal Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Skinner, Mrs.
P. L. Webster and daughter and Mrs.
Henry Cutler attended the W. C. T.
U. convention at Irasburgh last week.
The W. R. C. will furnish dinners for parties other than the Post, the Corps and the Sons of Veterans, band and Glee Club, for 15 cents, on Decoration Day.

John Brooks and family have moved to St. Johnsbury Center. Mr. Brooks has been in poor health of late and was compelled to give up work in the blacksmith's shop.

Amy Kinsley, who had been teaching in the Heath district, was obliged to give up her school on account of sickness, and Will Wright of this village has been hired to take her place.

The completion of the grand list by the lists shows that there has been a moderate increase in the taxable property of the town the past year, and the addition of twenty taxable pools.

Sneak thieves have been stealing plants and vases from the graves in the cemetery. Strange that there are any people so mean as to rob a graveyard. An attempt will be made to ascertain who the parties are, that they may be handled by the law.

Francis Jewell was home from Montpelier over Sunday. He is somewhat elated over the success of the Seminary ball team, of which he is a member, in the fact that the Seminary boys were victorious in the five last games played, defeating St. Johnsbury Academy team on Saturday.

Smith & Drown have their new marble and granite shop completed, and it is a well-built and convenient building. We understand that they have a good line of orders for work in this county and vicinity and are sending work West. They will do first-class work, having all the facilities necessary.

While Vermont has been enjoying beautiful weather, the rains have been prevailing and the floods raging all through the Middle States, snows have covered the ground in Kentucky and frosts have visited many localities, less favored than this. Why not all move to Vermont to spend the spring and summer season?

Mrs. Lizzie (Bickford) Gale, daughter of Mrs. Joseph Owen, arrived here from Florida on Friday last. She spent the winter in Florida on account of her failing health, and is so low at this time that it was difficult for her to take the journey. It is hoped that the Vermont air may afford her some help. Dr. Gale, who has also been in Florida, will return later.

We trust there will be a special effort made to have a large number of children from the Sunday Schools with others, who may be present, to form in line at one o'clock, on Wednesday, to help make up the procession, which marches to the cemetery. Will the parents assist in the matter? Let all the flowers, wreaths, bouquets, etc., be carried that can be collected. Plants should be carried into the hall.

Mr. Thayer of Newport, photographer, was here last week taking views and getting advertisements of business men to put in album form to serve as a business directory of this village. Barton Landing will also use part of the same book, we understand.
It will be a useful and pretty thing.

Some of Mr. Thayer's pictures, the proofs of which have been forwarded for examination, are very sharp and fine. The pictures will be valuable outside of the Album.

An insane tramp has been making considerable trouble in this village of late by entering houses and threatening mischief. The authorities hoped that he would depart of his own accord after having "done" the town thoroughly, but he seemed to enjoy the society and the scenery about here, showing no disposition to go away. He was finally brought before Justice E. W. Barron and bound up to the county court. In default of bail he was taken to Newport jail by Sheriff Miles.

The New Orleans Jubilee Singers gave an entertainment here on Monday evening which was fairly well attended—not as well as a genuine "burned cork" usually is, however.
The company lacks nothing in volume of voice or in negro speech and gesture. Most of the pieces sung were called plantation melodies, and we judge they may have been that. The "basso" had a terrific voice and struck down among the sub-bass tones with perfect ease. Some of the pieces sung were very pretty, and, on the whole, the concert was good.

The Annual Institute of Instruction holds its 64th annual convention at Maplewood hotel, Bethlehem, N. H., June 9, 10, 11, 12. The Institute is of great interest to teachers, and most high school teachers attend it. It affords great pleasure on account of the place where it is held, and great opportunities on account of the instruction, lectures, etc. The B. & M.
R. R. Co. has issued a fine circular, with descriptive notes, program, time tables and fares, which show that the expense need not be heavy. The fare, round trip, from Orleans county stations is about $3.00; from St. Johnsbury, $2.05.

Some one hands a clipping from the N. Y. Press, in which an account is given in the late Thomas C. Brewer of "Barton State Bank" fame. This time, Brewer's young and beautiful wife sues him for divorce on the ground that he wofully deceived her in regard to his business and his standing. The proof in her case shows up a variety of crooked transactions, including his Barton bank operations, also an account of his performance in a pool room in New York and his incarceration in prison for some crime or other. Meanwhile his insolvent estate in Vermont is being closed out.

Memorial Sabbath services were held yesterday at the M. E. church, the churches uniting in union services.
The services were conducted by Rev.
Mr. Lewis, assisted by Rev. Mr.
Swain. The Post, W. R. Corps and Sons of Veterans were present in bodies, with appropriate flags and badges. A very large congregation assembled. The sermon was practical, patriotic and interesting. The words directed specially to the veterans were particularly appropriate. The choir, led by Mr. Cutting, and assisted by Mr. Baldwin and Mr. Tenney of the Cong. choir, sang "To Thee, O Country," Kellar's Hymn, and other pieces specially adapted to the occasion.

Following is the program of the Barzar to be held at the Catholic church this week: Monday evening, Opera, "Les Inconveniens de la Grandeur," by a company of Newport young ladies; Tuesday evening, lecture by Rev. D. J. O'Sullivan of St. Albans; Father O'Sullivan is one of Vermont's finest orators. Wednesday evening, music, recitations and tableaux; Thursday eve, promenade and box party, music by Barton Band; Friday evening, tableaux. Saturday evening, distribution of articles. Refreshments will be served each evening.
Admission, Monday and Wednesday evenings, 25 cents; all other evenings, 10 cts. Entertainment will begin at 7:30. It is hoped that all will generously patronize these entertainments, as the society is in need of funds to properly furnish their church.

The following will be of interest to many in this vicinity who have known Mrs. Bodwell:

"The Supreme Court room was crowded on the morning of Tuesday last, at Manchester, N. H., to hear Hon. Cyrus A. Sulloway make the concluding plea in behalf of his client, Mrs. Ida Bodwell, who has been charged with stealing $800 worth of jewelry, wearing apparel and valuables from Miss Frances Wheeler. Mr. Sulloway made a strong plea, but his efforts in the face of the testimony that the state had piled up were unavailing, and after being out an hour the jury brought in a verdict of guilty and the unfortunate woman was sentenced to four years in the State Prison. Although she wept bitterly during the affecting portions of Sulloway's plea, she laughed when sentence was pronounced, and appeared to be perfectly indifferent to her fate. The testimony upon which she was convicted was contributed principally by her divorced husband.

The G. A. R. Post is making preparations for exercises of usual interest this year for Memorial services. Wednesday morning, May 30, at 8 a. m. the soldiers' graves in the North, Heath and Westmore burying grounds will be decorated with flags and flowers, when it is hoped all friends will be present. At 9:30 there will be services at the So. Barton cemetery, conducted by the Sons of Veterans, in which all the comrades and others are invited to participate. Dinner will be served in G. A. R. Hall at noon for the veterans, the Corps, the S. V. and the band. At 1:30 p. m., sharp, a procession, led by Barton band, will march from the school-house yard to the village cemetery where the ritual Memorial services will occur. Returning the procession and the people will assemble in the Opera hall, where there will be singing, music by the band, and a Memorial address by Rev. E. E. Herrick of Milton, a veteran soldier and a successful pastor.

The civic societies, the Sunday schools, veterans from other towns, and the citizens are invited to be present, to form in the procession and to participate in all the exercises of the day.
Comrades will go to Lyndon in the morning to decorate the grave of Capt. Geo. W. Quimby.

Mr. Hazen, County Examiner, was here on Wednesday last, looking over the matter with reference to holding the Summer School in this village again. The time is set earlier than heretofore—July 23—Aug. 4. Among the old teachers that have been engaged are Mr. Hall, Mr. Day and Mrs.
Ferry, all of whom gave excellent satisfaction last year. Others have been engaged with special reference to their efficiency and experience in certain lines and branches. It is expected that the board of teachers will be equal, if not better than heretofore. Mr. Hazen does not wish to crowd the school upon the village if the people can not conveniently find a place for the teachers. The expressed wish of many teachers that the school come here, and the spirit of hospitality and interest shown here, make it desirable that it be held in Barton Village this year, if not longer. We think we express the feelings and wishes of the people when we say that the school has been enjoyed by our people and that much benefit has resulted to the public, from opportunities afforded to the young people in the school, and to that greater number who have attended the lectures. While it is quite a burden to entertain the teachers in the household, all who can open their doors will be willing to do so. It is an advantage to the town to have the school and our citizens will be glad to see the teachers here again.

Barton Landing.
Get your bounty papers made out Saturday, June 2.
The Water Co. is pushing the pipe lines and have nearly one-third of the main line down. The reservoir is nearly dug.

The foundation is in for the new freight depot and the dirt moved for the passenger depot stone work. The selectmen laid out a road to freight depot last Thursday.

Lovell Brown was brought here by Sheriff Miles last Monday and had a hearing. He was sent to county jail one year for writing threatening letters to some of our citizens.

Dr. Ranney recently went to Montreal with Mr. Page, who had an operation performed on his leg, by scraping the bone. Mr. Page has returned and is under Dr. Ranney's care.

George Ford has raised his house one story and moved the ell, making a cottage to rent.—Mr. Cleveland is building an ell on the east side of his house and is making other improvements.

Meade Post will hold Memorial services as follows: Sunday service at M. E. church May 27, Rev. G. H.
Wright officiating. Procession will form at G. A. R. Hall at 10 a. m. May 27. Memorial day procession will be formed in front of Austin's block at 9:30 a. m. to march to the new cemetry where the usual decoration services will be held, the procession to return to the village burying ground to decorate the graves and adjourn for dinner. At 1 p. m. procession will form and proceed to M. E. church, where the address will be given by Rev. J. K. Fuller. All citizens cordially invited.

Albany.

The Albany Dramatic Club will play
"The Heroic Dutchman" on Deccation Day evening.

J. O. Fisher has moved his shop on to the south side of the road and will move his house on to the old shop site.

The Cong. church was very prettily decorated on Sunday and Rev. Mr.
Cameron, pastor, preached a very excellent and appropriate Memorial sermon.

A good fence has been built around the village school yard, while the yard itself has been put in a better condition. Now let us put up a flag-staff and float the "Star Spangled Banner."

Dr. Campbell was recently called to Carlos Miller's in No. Wolcott to treat an 8-year-old son, who is a sufferer with rickets, and whose bones are very fragile and brittle. The Dr. set the bones of one limb, which was the 25th fracture the child has already suffered.

The first Quarterly meeting of the M. E. church was held Sunday, May 20th, a large congregation being present. Three persons were received into full connection with the church.

The same day the pastor baptized by immersion an old gentleman; the ceremony was witnessed by a large number of people.

South Albany.

Presiding Elder Donaldson was here Thursday evening.
Elmer Douglass and wife went to Newport last week to the funeral of his brother's wife.

E. E. Rowell is seriously sick with a bilious trouble. His mother, Mrs. J.
C. Page, is here helping care for him.

Lyman Ellis is home on a visit from Essex Junction.—Miss T. M. Rowell and Harvey Rowell visited at St.
Johnsbury last week.

East Albany.

Mrs. Eva McGuire put 2,115 pieces into a bed quilt and has a pretty quilt.
Somebody has got so terribly depraved that he is stealing bags of phosphate.

Those young men who were "cutting up" about the school-house in Dist. No. 9. Sunday night, seems to be taking lessons for the Reform School.
Rev. A. J. Dutton, wife and daughter have gone to Lowell, Boston, etc., on an extended visit.—Geo. H. Annis and his wife and daughter will go to Boston to spend several weeks for the benefit of the daughter's health.

Brownington.

Get your bounty papers made out Thursday, May 31.

Mrs. Everett Burrows lately spent a few days in Charleston with her sister, Mrs. Will Locke.

Mrs. Mary Colley returned from Newport, P. Q., last Wednesday, where she has been visiting her parents.

There is much sickness in town.— H. M. Nichols is more comfortable than at times in the winter and goes out of doors fine days.

Arthur Baker of Hanover, N. H., was in town last week, after an absence of some sixteen years. His old friends were glad to meet him again.

Charles Seavey's wife, who has spent a year in Paris studying music, lately returned to her home in Wabash, Ind. Mrs. Seavey on her return trip visited relatives in Boston and Ware, Mass.

East Charleston.

Congratulations to Bert Lang and new bride, Miss Amy Gardner.

Mrs. G. F. Barber of Brattleboro has been visiting at R. P. Stevens.— Adna Cobligh of Thetford has been spending a few days at his home here.
—Mrs. Adna Bemis of Maine has been in town visiting relatives.

About forty friends and neighbors gave Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tripp a surprise party on Friday evening, May 18, and reminded them they had been married twelve years. S. C. Streeter, in behalf of the friends, presented Mr. and Mrs. Tripp a set of dishes, one hundred and twelve pieces. Mr. and Mrs. Tripp responded in a feeling manner, after which refreshments were served. A very pleasant evening was spent by all present.

The reception tendered to the new Methodist pastor, Rev. Mr. Snelling, at the Chapel last Thursday evening was a very delightful occasion. The evening was spent by singing, speaking and a social visit. G. B. Stoddard, in well chosen words, greeted the pastor and presented him with packages, telling him it was really a pound party, after which the pastor thanked his many friends for the kindness they had showed him. All present felt it was a evening well spent.

At the last meeting of the Ladies' Aid the following officers were chosen for the coming year: Pres., Mrs. R.
P. Stevens; Vice Pres., Mrs. Martha Davis; Sec., Mrs. L. W. Stevens; Treas., Mrs. J. S. Sweeney.—Last Tuesday evening the Reform Association chose the following officers for the next quarter: Pres., C. E. Blood; Vice Pres., Horace Katham; Sec., Miss Annie Cobligh; Treas., Iva Sweeney.
The young people take much interest in these meetings.

As Iva Sweeney was driving home from her school Wednesday night, her horse became frightened at a bicycle near Ward Chase's, throwing Miss Sweeney out by the carriage being turned over. The horse freed himself from the carriage and ran to H.
H. Lamson's, where it was caught.
Strange to say Miss Sweeney escaped being injured.—Joe Moody, while repairing a fence for H. H. Hudson one day last week, cut a bad gash in his foot.—H. H. Lamson is confined to crutches on account of rheumatism.
